Mr. Wenliang Wang
Dandong Port Company, Limited

Central, Hong Kong

Dear Mr. Wang:

I send you warm greetings and congratulations on the arrival of Virginia's first commercial shipment of soybeans to Dandong. I believe that the arrival of this shipment is reason for celebration in both Virginia and Dandong, and I am certain that it also lays the foundation of what is sure to be a long-term and mutually beneficial relationship between the Commonwealth of Virginia and Liaoning Province.

I greatly appreciate the time you and your company have invested in becoming a business partner of Virginia. It was such a pleasure meeting you in Beijing this past May. It was also equally enjoyable to receive you in Richmond in September with our good friends from Perdue Agribusiness. Please know that you are a welcome guest at the state Capitol, as your own travels bring you back to the United States and that Virginia stands ready to assist with other projects you may pursue in the future.

I hope to return to China at some point in 2012 and I will ask Secretary Haymore to keep you and Mark Fung apprised of our plans. I also know that Secretary Haymore is interested in coordinating a visit with Perdue Agribusiness to your facility to learn first-hand about the Dandong Port Group and to celebrate the arrival of the soybean shipments that have been scheduled over the next several months.

Again, I send sincere congratulations and I look forward to strengthening the ties between the Dandong Port Group and Virginia.

Sincerely,

Robert F. McDonnell
